

New to Islam?

You don't have to figure it out alone.

A free, private companion for your first weeks — clear English, no Arabic needed, and no question too basic.

The First 40 Days

A gentle, step-by-step path:
the Shahada, washing before prayer, how to pray, and your first short surahs — one small step at a time.

Ask Rafiq

Ask the questions you might feel shy to ask a person.
Answers are patient and plain,
and anything from the Qur'an shows exactly where it's from.

Understand the Qur'an

The Arabic, an English translation, and the meaning word by word — with audio, so recitation becomes understanding.

WHY YOU CAN TRUST IT

- It never invents or misquotes the Qur'an.
Every verse comes from the canonical text and is shown with its source — nothing is made up.
- It never issues religious rulings.
For personal questions, it explains the general principle and connects you to a real scholar.
- It is free, with no account and no ads.
Nothing to sign up for, nothing tracked, nothing sold — built as a charitable project, not a business.
- It is safe to use quietly.
Discreet and private by design, for anyone exploring or beginning their faith in their own time.

rafiq.chat

Scan the code or type the address on any phone. Nothing to install. Free forever.

Free, private, grounded. Built in memory of a dear friend.

Religious content is reviewed by a scholarly oversight board. · Questions? ask@rafiq.chat